St. James's, January 26.

THIS Evening the Marquis Paleotti, Envoy-Extraordinary from the Duke of Guaſtalla (being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, and Conducted by Sir Charles Cottrell, Maſter of the Ceremonies) had his private Audience of Leave of Her Majeſty.

Vienna, January 22. N. S. This Court hath ſent Orders to all the Officers of the Imperial Cavalry, but more eſpecially thoſe that are quartered in Bavaria, immediately to move towards the Emperor's Hereditary Dominions, where we hear ſix thouſand Horſes are provided for remounting their Troops, in order to march from thence towards the Upper Rhine, and oppoſe the Enemy's Deſigns on that Frontier. Advices from Great Waradin ſay, that ſeveral of the moſt conſiderable of the Malecontents have ſubmitted themſelves to his Imperial Majeſty, and obtained their Pardon; but were ordered to perform a Quarantain in the Neighbourhood of that Place, the Imperialiſts being apprehenſive of the Plague which rages in ſeveral Parts of Hungary that are in Subjection to the Malecontents. Letters from Raab ſay, that Colonel Ozkai, in the Service of his Imperial Majeſty, being taken by the Enemy, was by them carried to Neuheuſel and beheaded; and that by the Order of Marſhal Heiſter, the Government of Raab had, in the ſame manner, executed a Brigadier and a Colonel of the Malecontents. We have received Advices from the Camp before Neuheuſel, that a Party of the Enemy, conſiſting of three hundred Men, belonging to that Garriſon, were ſurprized and cut off by the Imperialiſts. Advices concerning the Circumſtances of the King of Sweden are ſtill very uncertain; they all agree that his Majeſty continues at Bender, but ſome ſay, that he will ſtay there this Winter; and others, that he waits only 'till the Ways are paſſable, to begin his Journey for Sweden.

Copenhagen, January 28. N. S. The Carouſal was performed laſt Night with great Magnificence. Yeſterday a Fire happened at Malmos, on the other ſide of the Sound, which burnt down ſeveral Houſes. On the 25th Inſtant an Expreſs arrived here from Schonen, with Advice, that the Daniſh Detachment which was ordered to March towards Chriſtianſtadt, advanced before that Place on the 21ſt Inſtant, and poſſeſſed themſelves of it without any other Oppoſition from the Enemy, but the Fire of a Battalion, conſiſting of ſix hundred Saxons who had formerly been Priſoners in Sweden, and being liſted in the Swediſh Service, were poſted to defend that Place. The Saxons immediately ſurrendred themſelves Priſoners, and a Regiment or two of Swediſh Horſe, that were in the Town, retired upon the Approach of the Danes, who purſued them as far as Lundbye, which is ſix Miles diſtant from Chriſtianſtadt. By the taking of this Place, the Danes are become Maſters of all the open Country in the Province of Schonen, and will entirely cut off the Communication the Swedes have hitherto had with Eaſted, from whence they ſent their Letters to Stralſund; ſo that our Advices from Stockholm muſt, for the future, be expected to be very irregular. Advices from Sweden ſay, that the new Levies were carried on with very good Succeſs throughout their Dominions, and that above thirteen thouſand Men were already liſted. All the Commiſſion-Officers of thoſe Troops, except Enſigns, are ſuch as have formerly ſerved in the Army, and many other Commanders of Experience are waiting at Stockholm for Preferment. For the greater Encouragement of thoſe Officers that are already received into Employments every Lieutenant hath been made a Captain, every Captain a Major; and all others have been in the like manner advanced one Degree above the Rank they formerly enjoyed.

Bruſſels, February 3. N. S. Lietenant-General Cadogan returned here on the 31ſt of the laſt Month from the Hague. The Recruits for the Dutch, Saxon and Palatine Troops that are quartered along the Meuſe, arrive daily at their reſpective Garriſons; and ſuch great Quantities of Stores are daily brought into the Frontier Towns, that their Magazines will be very plentifully ſupplied. Letters from the Frontiers of the 31ſt laſt paſt ſay, that on the 30th a Detatchment of five Companies of Granadiers marched from Valenciennes to Vicogne and St. Amand, and were to be followed by four others the Day following. The Enemy being apprehenſive that the Allies may have formed a Deſign upon Condé during the Froſt, the Garriſon of Valenciennes is ordered to be ready to be drawn out on the firſt Notice. Several Parties of Huſſars, belonging to the Garriſon of Mons, make ſuch frequent Incurſions into the Neighbourhood of Valenciennes, that the Gates leading to Mons and Tournay are kept ſhut the greateſt part of the Day. It is confirmed, that three Italian, ſix Spaniſh Battalions, and nine of the Walloon Veterans, which are in the Service of the Duke of Anjou, daily expect Orders to begin their March towards Spain. Letters from Paris adviſe, that the Negotiation between the Empire and France, for the Exchange of Priſoners, was regulated at Monſzingen near Briſac on the 13th of the laſt Month; by Vertue of which Treaty the Officers and Soldiers were releaſed on both ſides, and returning to their reſpective Regiments.

Hague, February 4. N. S. The Prince of Heſſe-Rottenburg and the Prince of Heſſe-Rhinfels are gone to Duſſeldorp. The Council of State hath for ſeveral Days been employed in treating with certain Undertakers for the ſupply of the Magazines on the Frontiers, and Accommodation of the Troops with other Neceſſaries for their Subſiſtence, how early ſoever it ſhall be thought requiſite for them to take the Field. It is ſaid, that Affair will be Regulated, and an Agreement concluded, the next Week. The Courier that was ſent into Sweden with the Propoſal of the States-General, concerning a Neutrality which the Danes and Swedes ſhould obſerve, in regard to the Territories belonging to thoſe Crowns in Germany, is returned hither, and brings Diſpatches from Stockholm, whereby it appears that the Regency of Sweden is enclined to comply with the Terms propoſed by this Republick, and alſo to favour the Intereſts of the Allies, ſo that it is hoped there will be no Diverſion in the Empire to the prejudice of the common Cauſe: And ſuch Meaſures are taken to give the King of Pruſſia Satisfaction in his Demands, that it is expected his Majeſty will afford his utmoſt Aſſiſtance towards the vigorous Proſecution of the War. Letters from the Frontiers adviſe, that Count Bergeick having reformed ſeveral Regiments of Walloons, that are to be incorporated with twelve Spaniſh Regiments appointed for the Service in Spain, is ſet out for Ghent, where he is to continue as an Hoſtage until France hath performed the Articles of the Capitulation of Mons. The Marquis of Bonac, formerly Envoy from the French Court to Poland, paſſed through Liege the 29th of the laſt Month on his Journey to Paris. There are Advices from Conſtantinople which ſay, that the King of Sweden is detained at Bender by the Ottoman
